Scholarship Acceptance Form for Tuition 2025-2026

This completed form must be returned to the Bishop McLaughlin Catholic High School administration offices or by email to scholarships@bmchs.com along with the Bishop McLaughlin Catholic High School Scholarship Application and essay and all other documents required to apply for the scholarships you have chosen.

In the event a scholarship award or financial assistance of any kind is offered/awarded to the student listed below, the undersigned recognizes and accepts that to remain eligible to receive awards through BMCHS managed scholarships, CSTAG, scholarships, and/or any other assistance offered by BMCHS, it is anticipated that the following expectations be met. Scholarships and assistance are offered based on the requirements listed on the BMCHS website. Demonstrated financial need as determined by a completed FACTS Grant and Aid Assessment is required for certain offers. They are limited to students and families who actively support the administration and faculty, as well as actively and positively participate in school life.

Expectations:

1. Grade point average must be maintained at or above a 2.5. (In the event a particular scholarship requires a higher GPA, that GPA must be maintained.)
2. Tardies and absences may not exceed the school policies (see handbook).
3. No major student discipline violations and minimal minor student discipline violations.
4. All student volunteer hours completed.
5. All parent volunteer hours completed.
